V=Venue type

The following codes provide information that best applies for the day of the event:

A I am an artist at my own studio.

B My venue is a studio/art gallery that will host an artist/group of artists for this event only.

C My venue is a studio/art gallery exhibiting the work of many artists year round.

D I am an artist participating at someone else's studio/venue.

E My venue is a museum/heritage site.

F My venue is a cultural centre.

My venue is wheelchair accessible meaning doors at least 32" wide, no threshold more than 1" high and either no stairs or an elevator/lift is available.

To view full artist/venue profiles including: photos, bios, special event details, mailing address and business hours outside of the culture tour, please visit www.cbculturetour.com.

Columbia Basin Culture Tour

Welcome to the first annual Columbia Basin Culture Tour.

You may think you know culture here in the Basin, but be prepared to discover something new!

Opening the registration packages for the tour has revealed an abundance of cultural riches. Even though we know many local artists, craftspeople and writers and have visited numerous local museums, art galleries and cultural centres over the years, we are delighted to see there is still so much more to learn and experience, right in our own backyard.

Visit studios that are not normally open, take a gander at that museum or art gallery you have not visited in a while, see new exhibitions and collections, watch performances and meet the people behind the scenes on this special day of celebration. Many locations have planned special events, group exhibitions, music or activities. Ask questions, view exhibitions, browse or shop for art and craft – there is something for everyone! We invite you to view full artist/venue profiles at www.cbculturetour.com for further details on each location's activities.

The culture tour is a great excuse to discover the treasures next door (what do they make there, anyway?), be fascinated by local history (I didn't know that!), or to take a road trip (over that pass, even?) and explore communities further afield. Self directed and free of charge, just pick your places on the map and go!

Your visit can be short and sweet or you can make a day of it, stopping for coffee or finding a new place for lunch along the way - either way we know you will be impressed by the incredible richness of our history and delighted at the talent of our residents.

See you on the tour!
